

Clutch.co Names Denologix a Top IT Services Company on Clutch!

For almost 20 years, Denologix has become an industry leader in providing Big Data implementations and management that empower companies to make the right decision. We've been able to help our clients better understand their market, competitors, risks, operations, and clients through our solutions. We are thrilled to share that Clutch.co has recognized our work and has named us in the top 3 of 3 different categories: marketing analytics companies, operations consultants, and compliance consultants.

B2B ratings and reviews firm, Clutch, is committed to uniting businesses with the ideal agency or service provider to undertake their exact needs. They analyze agencies and providers based on reviews from their clients, their industry knowledge and expertise, and their ability to deliver high-quality services. Analysts at the Washington D.C.- based firm spoke directly with our clients to assess just how great our innovative, flexible, and personal approach is to develop solutions.

"Exhibiting great attention to detail and flexibility, they're able to expedite projects and keep clients satisfied," said a Channel Account Manager of a Toronto Software Firm. "Their high level of expertise, responsiveness, and customer focus made them a reliable long-term partner."

The VP of Data Management at a Toronto Investment Company also had a positive experience, adding, “Denologix’s work will have a transformational impact on our company.”

Along with being acknowledged on Clutch, our success extends to the firm’s sister-sites: The Manifest and Visual Objects. The Manifest publishes industry reports, tech news, and how-to guides to help businesses efficiently find their next partner. Here we are listed among other big data companies. Visual Objects, contrarily, is a portfolio platform designed to help prospective clients envision a future project before hiring developers or a creative agency.

It is unquestionably an honor to be named by Clutch! We’d like to thank our clients for sharing their experiences with us to Clutch, and for continuing to work with us. We are excited to see what the rest of 2019 has in store!
